

DOT YOUR PS.—A good woman residing in the town of Hill, when absent on a visit received a letter from her husband, and was extremely shocked to find it dated from Hell!—and the N. H. Courier, alluding to an opinion in Hill's Patriot that a plurality would choose a representative, according to the law, at the next trial, comforts itself with the reflection, "It's well Gov. Hell has had his day!"—Keene Sentinel.

A painter who was employed a short time ago to write a sign at Cheltenham, instead of writing as he ought to have done done, "Cheltenham Waterworks Company," inscribed upon the board with more truth than delicacy, "The Cheltenham water works Company."

A Scotch laird who not only refused to sell a site for a new edifice for the Free Church, but bought up large tracts to prevent their being secured for that purpose, offered a poor widow much more for her premises than they were worth. "My laird," she exclaimed, "ye surprise me by offering sae much for my little manse, an' if I should take it, I should be made a rich lady; but I dinna ken I shall. I canna take it. My laird above (lifting her eyes to heaven) gave it to me, and to my laird above it shall go." A new church for the worship of the Saviour is now going up on the premises.

The captain of the steamboat "Belle," plying upon the North River, has banished alcoholic drinks from the bar of his boat. Good!

Five hundred and eighty-nine drunkards have been taken up by the watch of Lowell, during the last five months!

ROBBED KILLED.—In Georgia, lately, a fellow disguised himself as the devil, robbed the house of a rich widow, and was making off, when Jake Bradlock, returning from the mustel field, also disguised by liquor, shot dead the gentleman in black, in spite of his brimstone breath and club feet. When they came to disrobe and examine the fallen angel, he was found to be a citizen of the neighborhood.

A new Potatoe digger was recently exhibited in operation at Salem, New Jersey. A number of them were rescued by cutting a hole through the cabin floor. The boat, it is said, will be a total loss, except the machinery.

The course of studies in Pennsylvania College is as extensive and substantial as that of any institution in the country. The Preparatory Department provides for instruction in all the branches of a thorough English business education, in addition to the Elements of the Mathematics and Classical Literature. The College course is arranged in the four classes usual in the institutions of this country.

The government of the students is as energetic as their circumstances seem to require. They attend at least two recitations a day, and the Faculty contemplate increasing them to three, Church and Bible Class on the Sabbath, and are visited in their rooms so frequently as to preclude the danger of any great irregularities. It is believed no institution in the United States has more exemplary young men in connexion with it. They are all required to lodge in the College edifice, special cases excepted.

The annual expenses are—for board, tuition and room rent, during the winter session $61 1-2; for the summer session, $41 1-2; washing, $10; wood, $3 00. Total expense, $116 75. Boarding can be had in town at $1 25 per week.

There are two vacations in the year, commencing on the third Thursdays of April and September; each of five weeks continuance.

The summer session will commence on Thursday, the 22d of May. The annual commencement takes place on the third Thursday in September.

The Trustees have recently made various arrangements which will increase the efficiency of the Institution. They have increased the number of Professors and provided for the most ample instruction of the students.

Professor Baugher and Haupt are prepared to board boys and to exercise a special supervision over their studies and deportment, and Parents who may prefer placing their sons under their care, will be secure in regard to their proper management, under arrangements such as pertain to the family circle.
